Newbery TT

The Newbery TT is handmade by the Newbery master bat maker Tim Keely using the finest English willow resulting in a high performance but stylish new look Newbery bat.

- ▶ Innovative and stylish new bat shape made for "High Power & High Performance" designed for both the one day game and longer formats of game
- ▶ Shoulders removed from the splice of bat, weight re-distributed to huge middle whilst retaining a balanced feel
- ▶ The combination of sloping shoulders and increased handle length allows additional flexibility to enhance bat speed and power
- ▶ The light balanced pick up, additional flexibility and enlarged middle result in a stylish bat ideal for high impact cricket

New for 2011
